Media release - for immediate release 4th October 2011

LilkaFest: Second line-up announcement for annual camping and music festival.

LilkaFest announce Closure in Moscow, Dangerous!, Lady Strangelove, DJ Brendon, Stephen Hart and Chris Spiers to join the line-up for the November 25th-27th camping and music festival.

After being removed from the 2010 Soundwave line-up with controversial claims of unreasonable band requests Closure in Moscow will make it to South Australia for LilkaFest 2011. Getting their start in 2006, Closure in Moscow banded together as high school friends, and in their relatively short time together, have quickly outgrown their youthful origin. The band has released one extended play and one full-length studio album to critical praise – The Penance and the Patience (2008) and First Temple (2009). With the recent release of the noisy record 'Teenage Rampage' Dangerous! return to Australia after a whirl-wind UK tour. Signed to independent music label Epitaph in 2010 this mental garage rock band brings with it a reputation for out-there raucous onstage entertainment. Adding an adventurous concoction of psychedelic music which runs the gamut of psych rock to sonic electronica - Lady Strangelove has a musical approach that accompanies an energetic live show. DJ Brendon has been at the forefront of the Australian dance scene for almost two decades. With two DMC titles, countless experience alongside some of the worlds biggest names in dance, music releases throughout the years and a Ministry Of Sound "Clubbers Guide" CD under his belt, it's easy to see why Brendon has become one of Adelaide's biggest ambassadors. Stephen Hart burst onto the club scene in late 1997 and has gone from strength to strength to earn a reputation as one of Adelaide's leading house jocks. Chris Spiers, a name synonymous with mischief, mess and music! The head of the Riot Society phenomenon sweeping Adelaide, club walls, nation wide have wobbled to the Club House Party tracks that Chris selects, only the finest cuts will do.

These acts will accompany the already announced impressive line-up including Tim and Jean, Leader Cheetah, The Killgirls, The Salvadors, The Levitators, The Thieves, Irie Knights, Ride Into The Sun and Track Team.

*Tickets for the LilkaFest camping and music festival, to be held at Lilka Property, Martin Road, Meningie East, SA, on November 25th to the 27th 2011, tickets are available online at www.venuetix.com.au from $94+BF.
