

Media Release – for immediate release 14 November 2011

LILKAFEST - TWO WEEKS TO GO!

With less than two weeks until LilkaFest 2011, the event is busting with readiness for synth heavy indie pop sensation Tim and Jean, alternative country indie four-piece Leader Cheetah and progressive melodic rock band Closure in Moscow.

Joining these amazing headliners will be standout South Australian talent including rambunctious garage rock act Dangerous!, synth crazed extremists The Killgirls, dreamy punchy pop sensations The Salvadors, electro funk reggae locals The Levitators, celtic punk outfit The Thieves, psych rock electronica's Lady Strangelove, reggae roots act Irie Knights, psychedelic rock kids Ride into the Sun, Track Team Dj's, DJ Brendon, DJ Steve Heart and the latest line-up addition, NoSweet.

LilkaFest will be holding onto its BYO licence in the camping area only – the same as last year, please remember we have a no glass policy. A reminder to patrons that there will be no passouts at the event.

Tickets for the LilkaFest camping and music festival, to be held at Lilka Property, Martin Road, Meningie East, SA, on November 25th to the 27th 2011, tickets are available online at www.venuetix.com.au from $94+BF.

Head to www.lilkafest.com for further information.

- ENDS -

Please direct all media enquiries to Hels Orr on 0416 940 405 or via email to hels@lilkafest.com